

About the Author: Noella Menon

Noella is a published author. She currently resides in Singapore with her family.

Noella's book 'When I Grow Up', was published in 2014. It's a vibrant board book in catchy rhyme aimed at pre-schoolers and is all about the world of animals.

Prior to moving to Singapore in 2006, she worked full time with an animation studio in Mumbai. Her scripted dialogue for 'Haptics' an animated short film produced by them the same year won top honours at the prestigious Hollywood Film Awards in Beverly Hills, California. She also lent her voice playing the lead protagonist in the film.

Noella has helped script the Emmy Award nominated 'Womentalk.tv' webisodes on women achievers making a difference in society.

She has written feature articles for 'The Singapore Women's Weekly', 'India Se', 'Young Parent' and 'Femina' on Lifestyle, Parenting & Careers.

She has run 'Out of the box' lateral thinking workshops, author led creative career talks in international schools and as a guest speaker at related events in Singapore.

Noella is an internationally acclaimed professional voice over artist and also runs 'Wonder's of the Voice' master classes for aspiring voice artists.

Please visit www.voice4ads.com for more information about her work.

About the Author: Milly Pereira

Milly Pereira is a simple woman of extraordinary faith. She raised three young children single-handedly after she lost her husband in her early forties. She was a school-teacher for over 20 years and is now a School Counselor.

She was elected to lead and represent the F.O.L.O.R ( Fraternity of our Lady of the Resurrection, France ) in India, is an active member of the Hope and Life Movement for widows in Mumbai and has served as a

The Merry Tongue

A story of Love, Loss, Faith & Surrender

Eucharistic Minister in her Parish church for many years.

This book is her way to share her reflective accounts of faith and surrender, the miracles that ensued and the prophecy that was foretold for her that came true.